

WNUSP (World Network of Users and Survivors of Psychiatry)

- is an international organization of users and survivors of psychiatry
- advocates for human rights of users and survivors
- speaks internationally for users and survivors
- promotes the user/survivor movement in every nation around the globe
- links user/survivor organizations and individuals throughout the world

Please select an item from the list for further information:

{loadposition user4}